TPCODL issues guidelines for safe festive celebrations

PBD BUREAU

BHUBANESWAR, OCT 6

AS the festive season approaches, TP Central Odisha Distribution Limited (TPCODL) has released guidelines to ensure safe power supply during celebrations. The focus is on the safety of temporary structures like pandals, facilitating smooth festivities.

TPCODL stresses electrical safety, urging the use of licensed electricians for wiring and testing. It asks consumers to maintain a safe distance from installations, and ensure all connections are legal, using a 30 mA RCCB for protection. Proper earthing, fire extinguishers, and energy-efficient LED lights are essential. Avoid using metallic pipes or rods in flags to prevent dangerous contact with live wires, it advises.

TPCODL urges the public to report any electrical hazards to their Fuse Call Centre or via toll-free numbers: 1912 or 18003457122.

TPCODL CEO Arvind Singh stressed the company's commitment to safety, especially as Dussehra approaches. He emphasized the importance of authorized electricity connections and following safety protocols, aiming to ensure that celebrations are both joyful and secure. By working together, he said, "we can create a safe environment for families to enjoy the festivities with peace of mind."
