TPCODL celebrates Ethics Week 2025, reinforcing integrity and transparency

PBD BUREAU

BHUBANESWAR, FEB 27

TATA Power Central Odisha Distribution Limited (TPCODL) has launched Ethics Week 2025, running from February 24 to March 3. The event culminates on the birth anniversary of Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata, the visionary founder of the Tata Group.

The celebration underscores TPCODL's commitment to ethical business practices, integrity, and transparency.

Arvind Singh, CEO and Principal Ethics Officer, inaugurated the event alongside the senior leadership team, setting the stage for a week of discussions on ethical leadership and Tata Group's core values.

An Ethics Pledge was administered across TPCODL's Circles,

Divisions, and allied offices, reinforcing the company's dedication to governance and trust. Inspired by Jamsetji Tata's legacy, ethics remains central to TPCODL's culture, guiding responsible decision-making and strengthening stakeholder relationships.

"Ethics is a way of life at TPCODL, shaping our interactions with employees, vendors, and communities. In uncertain times, making the right choices is vital," said Arvind Singh.

Throughout the week, TPCODL will conduct discussions, awareness sessions, and activities to promote ethical decision-making and a culture of accountability.

TPCODL initiates the celebration of Ethics Week 2025

Bhubaneswar, (correspondent): TPCODL, a joint venture of Tata Power and Government of Odisha, has commenced celebration of Ethics Week 2025 from 24th February. It shall be concluded on 3rd March, the birth anniversary of Shri Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata, the founder of Tata Group. The celebration reaffirms TPCODL's unwavering commitment to ethical business practices, integity and transparency. The event was inaugurated by Arvind Singh, CEO and Principal Ethics Officer, TPCODL, alongside senior leadership team, marking the beginning of a week-long engagement focused on ethical leadership and reinforcing Tata Group's core values. The Ethics Pledge was administered at all Circles, Divisions and allied offices of TPCODL, reiterating the company's commitment to maintain the highest levels of governance and trust. Inspired by Shri Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata, whose vision laid the foundation for ethical excellence across the Tata Group, TPCODL continues to integrate these principles into its operations. Ethics remains the cornerstone of the organization's culture, shaping responsible decision-making and strengthening relationships with stakeholders. Speaking on the occasion, Arvind Singh, CEO and Principal Ethics Officer, TPCODL, said: "At TPCODL, ethics is not just a commitment, it is a way of life that extends beyond our employees to vendors, suppliers and the communities we serve. Upholding ethical values daily is key to fostering sustainable and responsible growth."
